SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH

ABOUT PARK HILL:

The Park Hill School District, which covers 73 square miles in southern Platte County, Missouri, is one of the larger districts in the state of Missouri, with the 16th largest enrollment. Park Hill was the first district to earn the Missouri Quality Award and is the only district to earn it twice. More than 82% of the teachers in Park Hill School District have at least a master's degree and more than 300 Park Hill students and staff members earned prestigious national, state and local awards and recognitions last year. The district is made up of eight municipalities – parts of Kansas City as well as all of Parkville, Riverside, Northmoor, Houston Lake, Weatherby Lake and Platte Woods. Park Hill has 11,690 students, who come from many backgrounds, with 66.1% white, 12.7% Black, 10.4% Hispanic, 5.9% multi-racial, 3.1% Asian, 1.2% Pacific islander and 0.5% Native American. The district is home to eleven elementary schools (grades K-5), four middle schools (grades 6-8), two traditional high schools (grades 9-12), one innovative and personalized high school program, one day school for students who need a therapeutic learning environment (grades K-12) and one early childhood education center (ages 3-5).

ABOUT KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

The Kansas City region sits on Missouri's western edge and is one of America's most affordable, family-friendly metropolitan areas. Every corner of the city has a story to tell.

There is plenty to see and do – visit the revitalized downtown, hop aboard the free KC Streetcar, and explore 18th and Vine, which houses the American Jazz Museum and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum. The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art houses nearly 40,000 works of art, from ancient to contemporary collections. And while Kansas City's signature cuisine is barbecue, you can eat your way through all kinds of foods at some of the best restaurants in the Midwest. Kansas City is also home to many major professional teams, all playing in state-of-the-art stadiums. There's always something to do no matter the season.
